Our Inspiration

You are forever enshrined in our hearts. Your vision continues to inspire us to pursue your noble goals and ideals in life. Your omnipresent image guides us along the path of excellence and reminds us our duties in giving shape to young mind.

Director's Message

I am very happy to state that the school is very successfully making strides to achieve the vision of developing the children of low income and under privileged families, into educated and responsible citizens of this country. This is evident from the values and the practices that the management of the school is sincerely & relentlessly pursuing through ethical means . Excellent infrastructure, low fees, financial support to the poor and needy and well qualified staff are some key elements of the culture.

The untiring and endless efforts being put in by the management, the principal, the staff, the teachers and the students are highly commendable. I express my gratitude and good wishes to all of them.
